Gratz, July 31.

ON the 26th Instant his Imperial Majesty viewed the Fortifications of our Citadel, and was saluted on his Entrance with the Discharge of 52 Pieces of Cannon which are mounted on the Walls. A Courier arrived here Yesterday from Soissons with an Account of the Death of Baron Penterridter, the Emperour's second Plenipotentiary at the Congress. M. Teichman, a Sea-Officer, who has quitted the Danish Service, is, amongst others, to accompany his Imperial Majesty in his Expedition to Trieste, where he has already been to visit that Port.

Paris, Aug. 14, N. S. Letters from Rome of the 22d past advise, that Cardinal Pignatelli Archbishop of Naples, was dangerously ill of a malignant Fever, and that it was probable, in case he died, that the Archbishop of Capua, Nephew to the Pope, would succeed him. The same Letters advise, that M. Rieux, the French Consul at Naples, died of the same Distemper eight Days after his Arrival there. On the 4th Instant the King hunted in the Wood of Boulogne, and afterwards supped at the Muette. On the 7th his Majesty took the Diversion of Shooting in the Park of Versailles. On the 8th about Sixty of the chief Nobility were admitted, for the first Time, into the Queen's Bedchamber, since her Lying-in. The Marquise d'Aubigny, Mother to the Dutchess de Noailles, died the 5th Instant. M. Sequier, Grandson to the late Chancellour of that Name, is made First President of the Parliament of Metz. The young Dutchess of Bourbon is come to Paris, and will go this Day to Versailles, in order to be presented To-morrow, for the first Time, to their most Christian Majesties.

Whitehall, August 8.

This Day came Advice, that His Royal Highness the Duke of York, Bishop of Osnabrug, died on the 14th Instant, N. S.

Hampton-Court, Aug. 7, 1728.

This is to give Notice, that the Letter directed to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated the 5th Instant, and signed S. W. is received; and if the Person who wrote the same will come to the said Secretary, and make out what he therein proposes, he shall meet with all suitable Encouragement.

Navy Office, Aug. 5. 1728.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st of January 1727, to the 30th of June last, according to his late Majesty's Establishment in that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payments will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Thursday the 22d Instant for the Captains, Friday the 23d for the Lieutenants, and on Saturday the 24th for the Masters, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavits required, touching their not having enjoy'd the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also to produce Certificates that they have subscribed the Test, and taken the Oaths required by the late Act of Parliament to His present Majesty: And in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employ'd by.

Navy-Office, Aug. 9, 1728.

Whereas Mr. Hugh Laugharne, one of the Clerks belonging to the Navy Office, hath been lately detected of committing several Frauds in the said Office; These are to give Notice, that whoever will apprehend and secure the said Hugh Laugharne, and give Notice to the Commissioners of the Navy, or Mr. Jobber, Sollicitor for the Affairs of the Admiralty and Navy, at No 1. Garden-Court, Middle Temple, where he may be apprehended and secured, shall thereupon, when taken, receive from the said Commissioners the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

NB. He is a short well-set Man, with a pale Countenance, smooth Face, black Eyebrows, and was seen in St. Paul's Church-yard on Monday last in a dark colour'd Suit of Cloaths and a light tye Wig, and is about 40 Years of Age.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, That they intend to Lett by Lease the several publick Lay-Stalls belonging to this City, (viz.) The Lay-Stall at Dowgate, the Lay-Stall at White-Fryers, and the Lay-Stall at Puddle-Dock; together with Two Messuages or Tenements, and a Wheeler's Shed there: And that the said Committee will sit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wednesday the 4th Day of September next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Proposals for the same; of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office in the Guildhall London.
